

Stewardship: A Way of Life

Time, Talent and Treasure Worksheet

TIME

How do I use God's gift of time? In an average month, how much time do I spend in:

Activity	Time Spent
• Prayer (personal and communal)	_____
• Scripture reading, study, sharing	_____
• Visiting/Calling the sick, elderly, lonely	_____
• Quality sharing with family and friends	_____
• Working (vocation) as God's collaborator	_____
• Doing ministry at my parish/in archdiocese	_____
• Practicing charity in the community	_____
• Recreation/Renewal	_____
• _____	_____
• _____	_____

How could I be a better steward of God's time? Is my giving of time intentional, planned, and proportionate to God's generosity?

TALENT

How do I discern, develop, and use the talents God has given me for the good of others?

1. What are the talents I have been given that could benefit others?

2. How am I sharing those talents with my family, friends, parish, community, world?

How could I be a better steward of God's talents? Is my sharing of talent intentional, planned, and proportionate to God's generosity?

TREASURE

How do I share with others the treasure I have been given by God?

1. What portion of God's treasure do I give back to God for use by:
 - a. My parish _____
 - b. My archdiocese _____
 - c. Victims of disasters _____
 - d. Charities _____
2. How do I conserve/set aside God's resources so that all may have enough to live?
How do I multiply God's resources so that all may have enough to live?

How could I be a better steward of God's treasure? Is my sharing of treasure intentional, planned, and proportionate to God's generosity?

How we spend our time, use our talents, and share our resources is an indication of our progress in living Christian stewardship.